

Social Happenings in Cities and Towns of Utah

OGDEN.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, March 26.—The marriage of Miss Mattie Nelson of Salt Lake City and James Q. Leavitt of Ogden took place on Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mattie Vogel, in Salt Lake City. The ceremony was performed at 1 o'clock by Bishop Robert Morris and was witnessed by only the members of both families. The room was bright with quantities of spring blossoms. The bride wore a pearl gray satin dress with trimmings of heavy hand embroidery, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Vogel, who wore a white lingerie gown and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was in a dark suit. After the ceremony a luncheon was served and Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt left later for Ogden, and will make their home here.

C. S. Gunnell spent Monday in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Charles R. Kircher has returned to Ogden, after spending several weeks in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Charles A. Henry has issued invitations for a large card party to be held at the Virginia, Easter Monday, March 28.

Mrs. Archie P. Bigelow will entertain the members of the Martha society at its next regular meeting, March 28, at her home.

Mrs. Charles R. Kircher will be hostess to the members of her afternoon bridge club Thursday afternoon, March 31, at her home.

Wednesday afternoon the wedding of Harvey A. Beatty of Salt Lake and Miss Olive Agnes Schack of Winona, Minn., took place at the Baptist parsonage, Rev. H. D. Zimmerman performing the ceremony.

The next meeting of the Home Culture club will be held at the home of Mrs. A. W. Putnam, Thursday afternoon, March 31, at 8 o'clock. The subject of the evening will be "The Art of Living."

The members of the Railway Postal Clerks association of Ogden will give their annual ball at the Congress dancing academy April 7.

The Knights of Columbus will give a ball Monday evening, March 28.

The Ogden high school alumni will give a ball Friday evening, April 1, at the high school ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Rich entertained a few friends at dinner Wednesday evening at their home.

This week Mrs. J. S. Corlew will entertain at a series of parties. The first will be a card party on Monday evening, to which about fifty guests have been bidden. On Wednesday and Friday afternoon Kensingtons will be given.

The historical society will meet with Miss E. L. Edwards, Saturday afternoon, April 2.

The Child Culture club will meet with Mrs. David Eccles, Tuesday, March 29, at her home. An open meeting will be held at Mr. Beauregard, instructor of art at the Ogden high school, will give an art exhibit and lecture.

Miss Myrtle Blood of Farmington is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Varney.

Misses Mary and Olivia Jensen of Brigham City were Ogden visitors during the week.

PARK CITY.

Special to The Tribune.

PARK CITY, March 26.—Little Genevieve Merritt entertained a number of her young friends at her home Friday afternoon. Games of all kinds were played, and later dainty refreshments were served. The youngsters present were: Edith Andrews, Margaret McFarland, Beatrice McFarland, Clifford Fife, Maxwell Orr, David Orr, Ida McFarland, Celeste Mills, Gretchen Smith, William, Ora Workman, Merle Workman, Lucile Pike, Mary Gilman, Laura Guyman, Bernice Thomas, Blanche Thomas, Leona Thomas, Edith Smith, Frank Burrows, Irene Jeffords, Rhea Widdison, Alice Fargo, Russell Widdison and Clyde Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sutton returned Friday morning from Salt Lake, where they were in attendance at the wedding of Mr. Sutton's son, William, to Miss Glenn Algood of Salt Lake.

Mrs. A. R. Williams entertained twenty little children Saturday afternoon at a theater party in honor of her daughter, Miss Marjorie Williams. After the performance the children were taken to the Waters & Fitzgerald's, where a dainty lunch had been prepared. The lucky ones were: Tootsie, Michael, Thomas and Christina Adams, Margaret, Edith, Edith, Glad, Alice Hansen, Horace Hedges, James McIntyre, Harold McIntyre and Eleanor Wright.

Miss Frances Fargo came up from Salt Lake Friday morning and will spend Easter with her parents.

Miss Emma Lewis was most pleasantly surprised Thursday evening by a number of her school friends who spent several hours of amusement, dainty refreshments were served. The invited guests were: Jennie Wilson, Bonnie Wilson, Rhea Wilson, Edith, Lily, Beatrice, Hazel Hales, Mildred Minnich, Lucile Smith, Miss Smith, and Edna Martin, Leola Shields, Mrs. Sherman, Alfred Brownshaw, Irwin Evans, Edna Evans, Sterling Lewis, Chester Dagdesh, James Paulsen, Bud Johnson and Ethel Smith.

Mrs. F. W. Sherman and daughter, Miss Frances, were passengers to Salt Lake Wednesday afternoon.

The officers for the ensuing year of St. Luke's Guild were elected Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Smith. The following officers were elected: Miss Mober, president; Mrs. Fred Smith, treasurer; Mrs. H. S. Townsend, secretary. After the election, dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. C. Perry left Monday afternoon for Salt Lake, where she will remain for some time.

One of the novel features for some time was the catwalk ball given Wednesday evening in the Appian hall of the Mormon church. Dancing was indulged in and later refreshments were served.

James Muir has returned to the Park after an absence of several months. The young man's many friends will be glad to know that he is going to remain in the Park.

The largest affair of the week was the card party given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. A. B. Williams, Mrs. G. E. Hedges and Mrs. Charles Townsend at the home of Mrs. A. B. Williams. The party was played and later delicious refreshments were served by the ladies. The house was beautifully decorated and very neat place cards were used.

Miss Nolan left Tuesday afternoon for Salt Lake, where she went to spend Easter week.

Monday evening the pupils of the Jefferson school entertained the teachers, the school trustees and their wives, and Mr. and Mrs. Griffin, at a dance. The Swedish-Finnish Amusement hall was the one used. The hall was beautifully decorated in pennants, bunting and the class colors. Dancing was indulged in for several hours, and about 11 o'clock a dainty repast was served. All the invited guests present wished that the pupils would entertain soon again.

Several pictures were given Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Ed Pegan left Sunday afternoon for Butte, where she was called by the sudden death of her brother, John Martin.

Morris Morris was an outgoing passenger Sunday afternoon.

Tribune Want Ads.
Bell Main 5200. Independent 360.

KAYSVILLE.

Special to The Tribune.

KAYSVILLE, March 26.—During the past week the following Kaysville people have been visitors to Salt Lake City: Arnold M. Barnes, Paul R. Thomassen, Miss Martha E. Barnes, William Dunmer, Miss Emily Mayhew, Miss Clara Barton, Bishop and Mrs. Henry H. Blood, Hon. and Mrs. John R. Barnes, Mr. Henry S. J. Mansell, Miss Cora Bonnemort, Miss Nora Dunmer, Miss Mollie Barnes, Miss Olive Killeyle, Miss Norma Thornley, Miss Vera Bonnemort, Miss Mattie Thornley, George Openshaw, Miss Blanche Barnes, Mrs. Nancy J. Kenney, Miss Mamie Barnes, Mrs. Benjamin Barrett, Miss Beatrice Barnes, Herbert J. Barnes, Adolbert Barnett, Gordon Galley, Richard Galley, Oscar Bennett, Lawrence R. Layton, Fred A. Sheffield, Mrs. Nettie Stevenson, Mrs. Ella Dawson, Mrs. Lawrence Elliott, Keith Barnes, Mrs. Mary Cole, Mrs. William Coley, Miss Alice Cole, Mrs. Rachel Mansell, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Cole, Beattie Cole, Ernest Blood, John Robins, Miss Gladys Coley, Paul Thomassen, John G. M. Barnes, Edward Edmonds, Mrs. Mary Flint, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, Nicholas Bonnemort and Hubert C. Burton.

Miss Myrtle C. Blood spent Friday in Ogden as a guest of her sister, Mrs. William Varney.

Miss Ruby Bromley of Echo visited in Kaysville on Friday as a guest of Paul R. Thomassen.

J. E. Lloyd of Logan was in town Tuesday.

The following Kaysville people have been visiting in Ogden during the week: Robert Sumerville, Mrs. Mary Jane Proudfoot, Mrs. Robert Green and little daughter.

Alexander Odd left Tuesday evening for Pocatello, Ida., where he has accepted a position with the Oregon Short Line Railroad company.

Bishop Henry H. Blood was a visitor in Park City on Friday.

Among the Kaysville visitors during the week were the following residents of Salt Lake City: Mrs. Arthur F. Barnes, Herbert J. Barnes, Adolbert Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. James Payne and little daughter, Mrs. Annie Gust, Mrs. Randolph Dibble, Mrs. Elizabeth Tucker, W. S. Barnes, son Rolland and daughter Maurine, Evelyn and Emma Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ronsch, Angus M. Cannon, Jr. and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. John Halborn, Mr. and Mrs. John Clift, J. E. Austin, Mr. Summerhays, Lawrence C. Blood and Mrs. Mary Weller and children.

The Smolin orchestra of Lehi gave a grand ball in the Farmers' Union hall at Layton this (Saturday) evening. A large number of young people from all parts of Davis county were present.

Clifford D. Strong entertained a few friends at a candy pull at his home Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron H. Phillips entertained about twenty-five of their relatives and friends at dinner at their home on Sunday. Mrs. Phillips was assisted in serving by Miss Alfred Freestone and Miss Menta Phillips.

John Barton of Ogden visited relatives here Monday.

Vernon Strong left Monday morning for Haden, Ida., where he expects to remain for a few months.

Henry H. Blood spent Wednesday in Evanston, Wyo.

John G. M. Barnes returned home on Wednesday morning after a few days' visit in Boise, Ida.

Miss Norma Thomson entertained about thirty of her young friends at her home Monday evening in honor of her twelfth birthday. The time was spent in playing games, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Sammuel Hansen returned home on Saturday a week's visit in Springfield.

Mrs. Harry Swanger spent Sunday in Hooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Phillips, who have been here for the past month, visited their many relatives, returned to their home in Haden, Ida., Monday.

Mrs. Lorenzo Barnes of Downey, Ida., is here for a few days, visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Arson Day.

The Mutual Improvement association of Kaysville will hold another debate in the meeting house Tuesday evening. The question for debate is: "Resolved, That country life is preferable to city life."

The affirmative will be taken by Miss Mary Swan as chairman and Misses Cora Bonnemort and Cora Bateman, and the negative by Thomas White as chairman, Gordon Galley and Harry Strong.

Evon Ellison left Monday evening for Raymond, Canada, where he expects to remain for a few months.

Mrs. R. W. Barnes has returned home after a few days' visit in Kansas, Summit and Morton.

Murray Cowley has returned home from Lehi, Ida.

Miss Ethel Sessions entertained a number of friends on Wednesday evening. After refreshments were served the remainder of the evening was spent in playing progressive blind, and prizes were won by Miss Ruby Bromley and Paul R. Thomassen. The booby prizes were given to Waldemere Call and Miss Margaret R. Williams.

Frank Varney of Ogden is spending a few days in Kaysville.

Will Foxley, who has been working in Malad City, Ida., for some time past, returned home Tuesday and expects to remain here during the summer.

MURRAY.

Special to The Tribune.

MURRAY, March 26.—This Saturday evening in the Trocadero the members of the Murray volunteer fire department entertained on an extensive scale. This particular event is held annually by the firemen and is always looked forward to with a great deal of interest. That the social this evening was a success was easily demonstrated by the large number of citizens and residents of the town who were in evidence to see to it that every one enjoyed the evening. Punch was served from two cozy bowers in the south end of the hall. Excellent music was furnished by an orchestra of ten pieces.

Miss Little Rasmussen of Salt Lake and Heber Eklins of this place were united in marriage in the hall of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kaufman of Park City have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Eatchell the past week.

Dr. R. B. Kennedy, city physician of Murray, underwent an operation at St. Mark's hospital Thursday.

The character ball given in the South Cottonwood amusement hall Friday evening was largely attended by members of the ward and friends in the county. Prizes were awarded to those who portrayed the most quaint characters.

The following young people of Murray and vicinity were joined in wedlock this week: Grace Davis and Nella Malstrom; Hazel Phillips and Harry Buckingham; and Rose Kossch and John A. Haywood.

William Hay has been here for a fortnight visiting with friends and relatives.

Albert Cahoon, formerly of this place, but now of Idaho, arrived in Murray this week and will spend two weeks or more in the city.

Fred Wach, formerly a successful merchant of this place, but now practicing medicine at Dover, Ill., is here visiting with old friends and acquaintances. Mr. Wach is contemplating taking up his residence somewhere in Idaho.

Latest in Beautiful Gowns, "The Three Graces"

TOOELE.

Special to The Tribune.

TOOELE, March 26.—Mrs. Donald Hendry very charmingly entertained the Ladies' Sewing club on Wednesday afternoon at her home. The color scheme was carried out in yellow and white. Yellow daffodils and white lilies, with beautiful ferns, were used in profusion, and the Easter sentiment, with candy, eggs, rabbits and chicks, was observed throughout the beautiful rooms. Luncheon was served from a beautifully appointed table. Large bunches of yellow and white flowers adorned each end of the table.

The favors were white rabbits and yellow chicks in marshmallows. After luncheon, Mrs. Howard Wallace and Mrs. Fred Brule gave some beautiful vocal selections. Bridge whist was played.

The favors were white rabbits and yellow chicks in marshmallows. After luncheon, Mrs. Howard Wallace and Mrs. Fred Brule gave some beautiful vocal selections. Bridge whist was played.

Mrs. O'Conner and Mrs. Green Logan making the highest score. Mrs. Hendry was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Joseph B. Macintosh. Those present were: Mrs. Donald Hendry, Mrs. Joseph B. Macintosh, Mrs. Harry N. Thompson, Miss Margaret O'Conner, Mrs. Rhynald Tull, Mrs. E. Hunter, Mrs. Fred Brule, Mrs. Howard Wallace, Mrs. William Seely, Mrs. Tremain, Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Green Logan.

The Ladies' Sewing club will be entertained by Mrs. Fred Brule on Wednesday afternoon at her apartments at Hotel Tooele.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pratt of Ophir entertained a number of their friends at an elaborate luncheon after the dance on Saturday night. The table was beautifully decorated with choice cut flowers and ferns. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Helms Girdley, Dr. and Mrs. Zeno Logan, Dr. and Mrs. V. G. Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hancock of Tooele, and Mrs. Howard Wallace, Mrs. William Seely, Mrs. Tremain, Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Green Logan.

Quite a number of Tooele people went to Ophir last Saturday to attend the grand ball at that place. Among those who went were Will Kirk and Miss Mary Gordon, Joe Tate and Miss Zella Clegg, George Linberg and Miss Minnie Hardy, and Alfred Green and Miss V. McBride. They remained in Ophir on Sunday and were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pratt and Mr. and Mrs. Helms Girdley. They also visited the Ophir Hill mines, returning to Tooele Monday.

Edward Groesbeck, who has been quite ill at his home in Salt Lake, has returned to Tooele.

Mrs. Samuel Merritt will spend Easter in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hendry are visiting in Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Hub Groesbeck were in the south end of the hall. Excellent music was furnished by an orchestra of ten pieces.

The following young people of Murray and vicinity were joined in wedlock this week: Grace Davis and Nella Malstrom; Hazel Phillips and Harry Buckingham; and Rose Kossch and John A. Haywood.

William Hay has been here for a fortnight visiting with friends and relatives.

Albert Cahoon, formerly of this place, but now of Idaho, arrived in Murray this week and will spend two weeks or more in the city.

Fred Wach, formerly a successful merchant of this place, but now practicing medicine at Dover, Ill., is here visiting with old friends and acquaintances. Mr. Wach is contemplating taking up his residence somewhere in Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Flynn were Tooele visitors during the week.

PROVO.

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, March 26.—The local lodge of Odd Fellows and the auxiliary lodge of Rebekahs entertained Wednesday night at the Odd Fellows' hall, at one of the most enjoyable affairs of the week. The guests of honor were: Grand Master Morley, Past Grand Master Walker, Grand Representative Pierce, Grand Warden E. P. Christensen, Granville, Lake and Deputy Grand Master Morley of Eureka; who were here on an official visit. One of the interesting features of the entertainment was an exhibition drill given by the Deborah Rebekah lodge. An elaborate banquet was served to about one hundred members.

The members of the First ward entertained the old folks of the ward at the Social hall Thursday afternoon. A programme of music and games was rendered. A delicious luncheon was served during the festivities.

Miss Aydenne Vale of Salt Lake City spent Tuesday and Wednesday with relatives in the Garden City.

Mrs. Stephen Skillhorn left the fore part of the week for Pocatello, Ida., where she will join her husband, who is in business there.

The Sorosis club met at the home of Mrs. D. L. Wallick, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Barker gave an interesting paper on "Folklore," and each member presented a roll call with a verse. The same author. The club will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Jacob Evans.

Mr. Preston G. Peterson entertained a number of friends at an automobile party Monday afternoon, taking in Springfield, where the guests were banqueted at "Beefsteak Harrington's." The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Jesse Smith and daughter, Mayme, of Idaho.

Mrs. Jesse Smith and daughter, Mayme, were the guests of honor at an entertainment given at the Cafe Lamai by Mrs. C. E. Loose.

The Five Hundred Card club was entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Smith. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Grant C. Bagley and Ben Durland. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Sorosis Junior club met Monday evening at the home of Miss Fay Loose, Mrs. C. E. Maw gave a paper on "Goethe" and a review of "Faust."

John Collett of Salt Lake City spent Sunday in Provo as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alexander.

Miss Fay Loose and Miss Alta Taylor spent Thursday in Salt Lake City.

The Misses Opal and Ethel Noon entertained a number of friends Wednesday evening at their home. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Jesse Smith and daughter, Mayme, of Idaho.

Mrs. Jesse Smith and daughter, Mayme, were the guests of honor at an entertainment given at the Cafe Lamai by Mrs. C. E. Loose.

The Five Hundred Card club was entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Smith. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Grant C. Bagley and Ben Durland. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Sorosis Junior club met Monday evening at the home of Miss Fay Loose, Mrs. C. E. Maw gave a paper on "Goethe" and a review of "Faust."

John Collett of Salt Lake City spent Sunday in Provo as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alexander.

Miss Fay Loose and Miss Alta Taylor spent Thursday in Salt Lake City.

The Misses Opal and Ethel Noon entertained a number of friends Wednesday evening at their home. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Jesse Smith and daughter, Mayme, of Idaho.

Mrs. Jesse Smith and daughter, Mayme, were the guests of honor at an entertainment given at the Cafe Lamai by Mrs. C. E. Loose.

EUREKA.

Special to The Tribune.

EUREKA, March 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hulsh have concluded that the altitude of Eureka is too high for them, and this week left for Payson to make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Taylor have returned from a sojourn with relatives and friends at Payson.

Louis Frank, wife and child, returned the fore part of the week from a sojourn with relatives at Salt Lake City.

George McClure, road supervisor of Juab county, has changed his residence to the county seat, and this week Mrs. McClure and children joined him there.

The members of Eureka lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F., will hold annual roll call on Wednesday evening, March 30, and a large number of the membership is expected present to answer to same. It being the twenty-second anniversary of the order. An enjoyable social session will be held, with speeches from many of the old members, followed by an appetizing banquet. The Odd Fellows have the largest membership of any secret order in Eureka.

W. I. Ashby of the Keith-O'Brien store, Salt Lake, visited here with his brother, P. L. Ashby, during the week.

Mrs. Frank Beasley and Charles Hulsh visited Salt Lake friends this week.

Mrs. J. W. Drabrough and L. H. Lay visited the capital during the week.

Henry Driscoll, Mike Fischner and Charles Gose were visitors to Payson during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood Hicks spent the fore part of the week with the latter's parents at Payson.

Mrs. William Homer spent the week with Provo relatives.

A farewell party was given at the Knightsville amusement hall Friday evening in honor of Frank Birch, late superintendent of the Iron Blossom and Colorado mines, who leaves next week on a mission to the eastern states. After a brief programme refreshments were served and dancing followed.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. E. Sullivan visited with the latter's parents at Payson the first of the week.

W. C. Reed visited with Spanish Fork friends the fore part of the week.

Miss Goldie Crooks, who has been spending several weeks as the guest of Salt Lake and American Fork friends, returned this week.

Ralph Badger, Fred Larsen, Peter Richards, John Robinson and Peter Borup were visitors at the Garden City Sunday.

Ralph Kellogg, superintendent of the East Tintic Development company, and William Mathews, superintendent of the Utah Consolidated mine, visited with relatives at Provo the fore part of the week.

Miss Genevieve Sullivan spent several days this week with Salt Lake friends.

Miss Emma Brohm entertained the young ladies of the "Sunbeam" club on Friday evening, and to say that the girls did not have a jolly carousing evening, refreshing themselves, without a young man, would hardly express their happiness.

Miss Lillian Fitch left this week for a sojourn in California.

Gus A. Franklin, Jackson McClure, W. H. Palmer and Joseph Hannifan were Capital City visitors this week.

On last Tuesday night Tintic lodge No. 25, F. and A. M., initiated a candidate into the third degree, at the close of which an impressive ceremony a banquet was served. Visiting members were present from throughout the state. The grand lodge officers will visit the local lodge on April 2, and a fine programme and banquet awaits their coming from the local lodge.

Mrs. Lawrence Blackett and children are visiting with Nephri friends.

Miss Jennie Connolly of Tooele is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Connolly of this city.

Mrs. Levi Schofield is the guest of Provo friends.

Mrs. John Huper visited with American Fork friends this week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. C. Stott entertained at dinner, Saturday, the Misses Helen and Cecil McCarthy, Mary Finlay and Edna Russell.

Mrs. Gus Franke is visiting with friends at the capital.

Mrs. Elmo Moore of Salt Lake is visiting with relatives in Tintic.

Misses Minnie Sullivan and Alice Weldon, pupils of St. Mary's academy, returned from the Easter holidays here with their parents.

Mrs. L. C. Doty returned this week from a sojourn with Salt Lake friends, as did Mrs. Alberg of Salt Lake.

The local acie of Eagles initiated six candidates on Monday evening, after which a banquet was partaken of.

Miss Alice Fitzpatrick of Salt Lake will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Badger during the week.

Mrs. William Dennis and Mrs. Alexander Gourley were the guests of Provo friends during the week.

Mrs. Frank McElhattan and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Taylor were the guests of Provo friends during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Barnard of Salt Lake will attend the dedicatory exercises of the Elks building on March 29. While they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac J. Barnard.

Mrs. Conrad Kopman will entertain the ladies of the Thimble club next Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Jamie Adamson entertained the members of the Provo Rod club Friday evening. A splendid meal was enjoyed by the young misses.

of Mrs. Mace's fifteenth birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in games, music and social chat, and a delicious luncheon was served.

Miss Arvilla Drisdale entertained a number of her friends at her home Monday night in honor of the birthday of the hostess. Twenty guests were present and enjoyed the evening in games, music, and a birthday supper was served.

The seventh and eighth grades of the training school of the R. Y. university, with the members of the faculty, entertained the evening in games and music Monday night. About fifty people were present and enjoyed a pleasant evening.

A number of the friends of Miss Lucille Carter very pleasantly surprised that young lady at her home in the Sixth ward Monday night, the occasion being Miss Carter's birthday anniversary. Games and music were played, and a birthday dinner was served to the twenty-five guests present.

Miss Lou Kirtchener entertained the members of the Agenda and Forget-Me-not clubs at a musicale, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bersach, with their little son, left here Tuesday morning for a month's visit to Los Angeles.

Mrs. L. R. Darrel of Salt Lake City is visiting friends and relatives in the Garden City.

Miss Ella Dallen of Eureka spent two days this week with friends and relatives in Provo.

Miss Minnie Davis has gone to Salt Lake City to visit with Mr. R. H. Davis.

Mrs. W. H. Lee spent a part of this week in Salt Lake City.

C. E. Loose has gone to California on business and pleasure.

Wash Chipman of American Fork was a Provo visitor on Wednesday.